Foreword

THE HONOR ROLL OF CATHOLIC GRADUATES is the the largest National Society of High School Honor Students. Its membership includes residents from each of the United States and many foreign countries.

The graduates whose names appear in this book have distinguished themselves in academic, athletic or extra-curricular activities and represent the finest progeny of the American secondary school system. Their sincere acceptance of the responsibilities of leadership has been recognized by the School Principals who have recommended them for this honor.

Through this annual publication, the Editor and Staff of THE HONOR ROLL OF CATHOLIC GRADUATES take pride in in providing this permanent record of student accomplishments -- a valuable reference for educational institutions, vocational bureaus, business and social organizations. They sincerely hope that the achievements of these graduates will serve as an inspiration to the student leaders of tomorrow.

To A Boy

by Edgar A. Guest

I'd say to every growing boy: "You can!
You are endowed with all that makes a man.
"Stand up to life and never be afraid,
 for mastery you were superbly made.
You have the eyes, the ears, the hands, the mind
 with which the greatest genius was designed.
"Remember this lest fear your dream destroy;
The man most famous now was once a boy.
"You are equipped for greatness,
 if you'll try,
But you the will and courage must supply."

Your Replies To Our Questionnaire

Which Are You?

A lot of people are like wheelbarrows — not good unless pushed.

Some are like canoes — they have to be paddled.

Some are like kites — if you don't keep a string on them, they fly away.

Some are like footballs — you can't tell which way they'll bounce next.

Some are like balloons — full of wind and ready to blow up.

Some are like trailers — they have to be pulled.

Some are like a good watch — openfaced, pure gold, quietly busy, and full of good works.
